

UNLETTERED AUTHORS

JULIAN OF NORWICH AND THE WOMAN WRITER

This course will explore Julian of Norwich in the context of manuscript and print histories of early English women writers.

How was Julian both first and last as a medieval woman writer?

with Guest Lecturer Madeline Fox @mfoxontherun

Wednesdays at 5:30 GMT/BST
March 18-April 22

$395 or $365 by the March 1 priority registration deadline sliding scale for people with limited means

Hosted by the ENCLOSURE GROUP @enclosedwithin

The womb and the room give birth to thought and image.
The Enclosure Group is a collective of artists and scholars interested in the history of medieval women's religious communities and their afterlives in art, literature, and intellectual history.

Assistant director Madeline Fox is writing a dissertation on enclosure in medieval devotional allegory.

Stacie Vos, (@bookcradle) is the founder of the group.
She completed her PhD in
at UCSD and is writing a book on education and political activism by and for women in the late Middle Ages and the early 20th century.

To register e-mail stacie.vos@aya.yale.edu with "Unlettered Authors" course in the subject line